HENRY WILLIAM MARTIN - b. 7 Aug. 1838; d. 6 Feb. 1904, Cambria, San Luis Obispo Co., Calif. He is buried in Cambria Cemetery, Cambria, Calif. Family tradition says Henry William Martin was a Union sympathizer and some of his relatives were Confederates. They threatened to kill him so Frances hid him under the household belongings in the wagon and drove until they found friendly forces. ABRAM MARTIN LINE

[See also Vol. II, #2 pages 26-28 & 40-42; Vol. II, #3 pages 50-52]

Please remember that when a pedigree is constructed you must begin with yourself and document each generation. It is never a good idea to start somewhere and work down because you can never be sure that the information you are collecting is going to be your line. NEVER ACCEPT A PRINTED SOURCE AS CORRECT UNLESS ALL FACTS HAVE BEEN DOCUMENTED. The Abram Martin line is no exception. Portions of this line that were previously published were not documented. They were taken from printed sources and some may be in error. In the issues to come this line will be expanded and all data will be documented with marriages, probate records, land records, obituaries, etc.

Many of you will eventually find that you do connect with this line and when you do the later portions will already be documented.

****

Naaman J. Woodland, Jr., Associate Professor of History, Lamar University, Beaumont, Texas has obtained a typescript from Salt Lake City which uses documents to show that many printed genealogies on the Abram Martin line are incorrect. We will begin with this typescript and continue in future issues to correct the Abram Martin pedigree. (Portions of the typescript follow & will continue in Volume III, #1)

GENEALOGY OF THE MARTIN, MARSHALL & EDWARDS FAMILIES WHO SETTLED IN VA., AND OF THE QUIN FAMILY OF MISSISSIPPI, dated 21 January 1939, New York

City, prepared by Jesse E. White.

New York, January 21, 1939

To Members of the Family:

The attached records such information as I have been able to develop regarding the family of Jesse Edwards. They represent careful investigation and a great deal of original material is incorporated therein. Some of the earlier Martin data is from "The Martin Family" by Anne C. Porcher which is based upon records by Dr. Samuel Davies Martin published in 1857.

Such additional data, not applicable to our own family as have been developed are included merely as references for others.

I hope you may find enough interest to aid in the correction and extension of these records which are simply copies of my notes that I hope may be eventually placed in a more permanent form. Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Jesse E. White

90 John Street, New York, N. Y.

[Note: William, James, Edmund and Letitia were dead when their mother made her will]

There is much variation in published genealogies of the relationship bet. ELIZABETH MARSHALL MARTIN & Chief Justice JOHN MARSHALL (1755-1835). History of Edgefield Co., S. C., Chapman, p. 342-3 says she was the "niece" of the father of John Marshall. Colonial Family of Southern States, Stella P. Hardy, says she 1st m. John Smith, Jr. & 2nd Abram Martin. THEY ARE BOTH INCORRECT. John Marshall's dau. Elizabeth & her husband John Smith are mentioned in his will dated 1752. At that time Elizabeth Marshall & Abram Martin had been married 7 1/2 yrs. & had 4 children. The John Marshall who had a dau. Elizabeth who m. John Smith was a bro. of William Marshall (1685-1738) who was Elizabeth Marshall Martin's father. ELIZABETH MARSHALL MARTIN WAS A FIRST COUSIN TO THOMAS MARSHALL (1730-1802), the Chief Justice's father, THEREFORE THEY WERE SECOND COUSINS. THE MARTIN FAMILY, p. 4 by Dr. Samuel Davies Martin, 1857 says they were cousins - which is correct.
